

J7 Art Project

A whole J7 joint art project resulted in this fantastic mural of the story of Snow White.

This was our entry to the competition organised by Cumbernauld Theatre, which was on display in the theatre during their pantomime which was attended by the whole junior school in December.

