

Need some help with essays, projects or class talks?

Struggle to get started sometimes? MindGenius is a thinking tool that will help you to:

- get all of your thoughts out of your head
- plan all class work
- export to a fully formatted Microsoft Word document or PowerPoint presentation

MindGenius is of particular use to pupils with dyslexia and dyspraxia:

- helping you to organise your thoughts and work
- divides topics into clear, manageable chunks
- with sample maps to give ideas on how get started

Interested in a different way to keep pupils involved in lessons?

MindGenius can also help staff to prepare for lessons and presentations or can be used in class with projectors or whiteboards to brainstorm topics with pupils for an interactive and fun learning experience.
